ABOUT US

At Torex Gold, we are driven by a deep commitment to excellence, sustainability, and innovation in the mining industry. Our journey to becoming the largest gold producer in Mexico in 2023 is a testament to our unwavering dedication to these principles and the remarkable efforts of our talented workforce. As of the end of 2023, our team comprised over 1,200 direct employees and nearly 3,400 contractors, 99% of whom are proud to call Mexico their home, with approximately 70% hailing from Guerrero State.

Our principal asset, the Morelos Complex, stands as a beacon of our success and ambition. This complex includes the El Limón Guajes (ELG) Mine Complex, which features the El Limón and El Limón Sur open pits, the ELG Underground mine, and our state-of-the-art processing plant, which began commercial production on April 1, 2016. The Morelos Complex is not just a mining operation; it is a symbol of our commitment to operational excellence, environmental stewardship, and social responsibility.

The ELG Mine Complex has been a cornerstone of our success, producing significant quantities of gold and contributing substantially to our standing as the leading gold producer in Mexico. The open pits, with their vast reserves, and the ELG Underground mine, with its rich deposits, have been meticulously developed and operated to ensure maximum efficiency and minimal environmental impact. Our processing plant, equipped with cutting-edge technology, ensures that we extract and process gold in the most efficient and environmentally friendly manner possible.

However, our vision for Torex Gold extends far beyond the current operations. We are actively shaping the future of our mining operations in Mexico through the development of the Media Luna Project. Located just seven kilometers from the ELG Mine Complex, Media Luna is an underground deposit that contains significant gold, copper, and silver mineralization. Situated on the south side of the Balsas River, this project represents the next chapter in our growth story.

The Media Luna Project was approved by our Board of Directors in March 2022, and since then, construction has been progressing at a remarkable pace. We anticipate the first production from Media Luna in the fourth quarter of 2024, with commercial production expected in the first quarter of 2025. This project is not just about expanding our production capacity; it is about extending the life of the Morelos Complex through at least 2033 and laying a solid foundation for the future growth plans of Torex.

Our commitment to the future goes beyond the Media Luna Project. The Morelos Property, which houses both ELG and Media Luna, has enormous potential for further development. Currently, 75% of the property remains unexplored, and we have identified multiple drill-ready exploration targets. These unexplored areas represent significant opportunities for future discoveries and the potential to further increase our production and reserves.

In addition to maximizing the potential of the Morelos Property, we are actively seeking opportunities to acquire assets in the Americas that will enable us to achieve profitable and productive geographic diversification. We believe that by expanding our footprint and diversifying our asset base, we can create additional value for our shareholders and ensure the long-term sustainability of our operations.

At the core of Torex Gold is a set of values that guide everything we do. We are committed to building a mining company that not only delivers value for our shareholders but also makes a positive difference in the communities where we operate. We embrace innovation in all aspects of our business, from the technologies we use to the ways we engage with our stakeholders. We believe that by fostering a culture of innovation, we can drive continuous improvement and achieve excellence in everything we do.

Our commitment to social responsibility is reflected in our workforce composition and our engagement with local communities. We are proud that 99% of our workforce at the site is from Mexico, with a significant portion coming from Guerrero State. This not only supports local employment but also ensures that our operations are deeply rooted in the local communities. We work closely with community leaders and stakeholders to understand their needs and priorities, and we invest in programs that promote education, health, and economic development.

Environmental stewardship is another cornerstone of our approach. We are committed to minimizing the environmental impact of our operations and to implementing best practices in environmental management. From the design and construction of our facilities to the operation and closure of our mines, we strive to protect the natural environment and ensure that we leave a positive legacy for future generations.

Our achievements to date are a testament to the hard work and dedication of our team. From the initial exploration and development of the Morelos Complex to the ongoing construction of the Media

Luna Project, our employees and contractors have demonstrated exceptional skill, resilience, and commitment. Their efforts have enabled us to achieve significant milestones and have positioned Torex Gold as a leader in the mining industry.

We are confident that by staying true to our values and maintaining our focus on excellence, innovation, and sustainability, we can continue to deliver value for our shareholders and make a positive impact in the communities where we operate.
